COMMITTEE COUNTS UNTIL IT IS TIRED

Grows Weary of Looking Over Ballots in Parsons-Saunders Contest.

SOME ODD COMPLICATIONS Lunatic Has Added to Strange Case Which Congress Is Considering.

Saunders Increases Lead.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., February 24.—The counting of the Parsons-Saunders ballots was concluded to-day. The records show that Judge Saunders got 115 instead of 92 majority.

There are fifty disputed votes to be counted by the full committee. Floyd county was not considered. The friends of the Democrat are very much elated over the result. They believe that the battle is over. The record of the case will be taken up to-morrow, and the committee will go into the regulating of such contents. H. E. C. H.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., February 24.—The Parsons-Saunders election contest, brought from the Fifth District of Virginia, is one of the most unique ever before Congress. Judge E. W. Saunders, the Democrat, was given the office, and is now the Representative in the House from the district, but John M. Parsons, the Republican, is contesting his seat. An odd complication was brought about at the ballot box by the candidacy of Elliott Matthews, a lunatic, who had been detained in asylums various times. Of his own free will and accord, Matthews, who needs to have an ambition to hold public office, a weakness that many sane people have, wrote the following letter, thereby putting himself in the congressional race:

Callaway, Va., September 5, 1908. "Hon. Secretary of the Commonwealth of Virginia: Sir—This letter is to inform you that I am an independent candidate for the election to the United States Congress in the Fifth District of Virginia, the election to be noon, Edwin L. Quarles offered his resignation as secretary and treasurer of the chamber to become effective April 1, 1910. His resignation was accepted. Mr. Quarles resigned to devote all his time to the work of the Southern Commercial Congress. He will serve in the capacity of field representative in Southern territory, certainly for a while. He was one of the organizers of the Southern Commercial Congress, which now has its headquarters in Washington, and was elected secretary. Mr. Quarles held that position now. He came to Petersburg March 1, 1907, as the first secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and Investment Corporation. He will not remove his place of residence from Petersburg immediately.

Protest Against Increase Tax. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., February 24.—At a meeting of the life insurance companies of the city, held this morning, resolutions were adopted protesting against Senate bill No. 17, which would increase the tax on life insurance companies from 1 to 1 1/2 per cent. The insurance companies are going to make a hard fight to defeat it. The bill was introduced by the House, and the resolutions adopted by the life insurance companies of the Board of Trade were forwarded to the Secretary of the Board this afternoon.

Plaintiff Awarded $4,500 Damages. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Alexandria, Va., February 24.—A jury in the Circuit Court, for Alexandria county, has awarded $4,500 in damages to the plaintiff in a suit against the Luma Park Company for $10,000 for the loss of a leg while operating an aerial swing. The company had been found guilty of negligence, and the verdict was, therefore, given subject to the court's decision on the damages.

Drug Store Goes Into Receiver's Hands. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Ash Grove, N. C., February 24.—On the application of the Citizens Bank and Trust Company, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, and the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, and the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond,
